Perseid meteor showers

Our annual NNH Weekend at Dyer Woods Nudist Campground in Foster RI coincides this year with the Perseid meteor showers. Being far from the city lights, there should be good viewing, if the three-quarters-full moon doesn't interfere too much.

This is an unstructured weekend of relaxation and enjoyment of Dyer Woods' pond, hot tub, hiking trails, and sunning areas. Join us for a day or come for the entire weekend of Aug. 11-13.

Bring along some food to share. There will be a pot-luck dinner on Saturday night.

You will need to make reservations with Dyer Woods, but please let us know, as well, so we know how many to expect.

Coming Up

If you missed our July trip to Martha's Vineyard, you have another chance to get to the nude beach at Aquinnah on Saturday, Aug. 19. Once again, Steve G. and Tom M. will be leading the trip, and you should contact them to make sure they include you in their count for determining what is needed for transportation to the beach from the Oak Bluffs ferry.

After that, we'll be holding some cookouts at Phil's Forest and A Sacred Place as we move into the fall season.

This year, our annual Uncostumed Halloween Party will include a special Oktoberfest meal at the Inn at East Hill Farm in Troy. Come for an afternoon of swimming and socializing, with a contest to determine the best "uncostume" — Halloween outfits that allow the wearer to be as nude as possible. Creativity is a plus, but the winner is determined by the whims of everyone who is not in costume but wishes to cast a vote in the contest.

Later this fall and winter, we'll be returning to the New Hampshire Mountain Inn in Wilmot for our monthly gatherings. We're still looking to fill in the January slot, so anyone with suggestions for our Nude Year event is encouraged to let us know what you have in mind.

Enjoy what's left of the summer while it's here!
